MORTON, ILLINOIS, El Paso, Illinois

For immediate release

Effective 7-15-2022, Morton, IL based Bottom Line Solutions will join forces with Linco-Precision, LLC, based in El Paso, IL. The combination of these two companies will form one of the largest precision farming sales and service companies in the Midwest. This venture will provide both companies, as well as our clients, the ability to source a wider array of products and help us to source a higher quantity of products in these trying times of shorter availabilities from our suppliers.

Linco-Precision, LLC has over thirty years serving the Ag Community in the Sales and Service of equipment and Precision Farming technology. They partner with growers and retailers in Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin, Missouri, and Ohio to provide high quality products and support them with exceptional service after the sale. " Bottom Line Solutions has been a preeminent Precision Ag dealer in this region. Their practice of providing exceptional, professional service to their clients, aligns with our philosophy. We believe this will provide a great synergy we can provide to our customer base and we are excited to welcome them to our team", stated Kent "Skip" Klinefelter, owner of Linco Precision.

BOTTOM LINE SOLUTIONS WILL MAINTAIN THE MORTON FACILITY AS WELL AS THE SAME ON-SITE MANAGEMENT AND EMPLOYEES. Melissa Mohr will be the location manager with Jack Bartholomew and Justin Steffen maintaining the sales and field service roles they currently serve. The only change the current Bottom Line Solutions clients will see is the invoicing and back-office support will be shifted to the Linco-Precision, LLC El Paso, IL office and more product lines will be added to Bottom Line Solutions offering.

Bottom Line Solutions will proceed to operate under the name Bottom Line Solutions - Ag Technology Solutions Group. To reflect the company's association with each other and other potential ventures in the future, Linco-Precision, LLC will also be known as Linco-Precision, LLC Ag Technologies Solutions Group. The employees of Bottom Line Solutions and Linco Precision are excited about this opportunity and will be collaborating with each other's teams. "We have always had a strong customer focus," states Jack Bartholomew. "We will expand our knowledge and product base and will continue to provide a superior customer experience along with Linco-Precision. We look forward to this new journey."

The location, phone number, and website for Bottom Line Solutions, Ag Technology Solutions Group, will not change, which are 309-253-1383 and located at 25356 Cooper Road, Morton, IL. The website address is www.trustbottomline.com. Location, phone number, and website will remain 900 West Main, El Paso, IL, 309-527-6455, and www.lincoprecision.com for Linco Precision, LLC.
